FELLOWSHIP EVENT

EVENT WHY?

WHAT WE'RE OFFERING

We believe all women should be given the opportunity to connect deeply and grow spiritually. By providing the Destined for Greatness Fellowship Event to the women in your congregation, you will be accomplishing just that.

CHURCH OF SAINT MARY, WOMEN'S MINISTRY

When Sarah Nuse spoke to our parish's women's ministry, attendees of all ages were completely engaged and left the evening feeling inspired to dream big. Her heart-felt testimony encouraged everyone to examine their God-given talents and set reasonable steps to accomplish person goals - all while glorifying God. Our evening with Sarah Nuse certainly blessed the women of our parish!

WHAT IS A DESTINED FOR GREATNESS FELLOWSHIP EVENT?

A BRIEF OVERVIEW

The Destined for Greatness Team, Jessica Nori Johnson and Stefanie Loncarich, will provide an engaging, high quality virtual experience for women in your church without you having to worry about the details.

The only objective you, the event host, would need to focus on is marketing the event to the women of your congregation. Encourage your congregation to surround themselves with other incredible women, fuel one another with faith/fellowship and leave feeling inspired.

This event can be planned and executed within a two week window (minimum). The ideal planning and execution time period is three to four weeks.

FEATURED KEYNOTE OPTIONS

1

"Soil Responds to Seeds Not Wishes" Are you setting yourself up to be Destined for Greatness?

In this message, Sarah illustrates the importance of sowing our seeds (our dreams and goals) in fertile soil (taking daily action steps, having the right conversations, working hard and acting diligently) so that we can reap much more than our input. Sarah encourages you to surround yourself with people who see who you are becoming, know what you are capable of and lift you up when you aren't in the room. She will offer the strength and confidence through her powerful words to find out what's blocking your view and will motivate you to take action today on those ideas inside your heart.

Carving a path for your own success, creating a balance and crushing your goals!

Through Sarah's engaging stories and practical insights, she inspires others by discussing what it takes to successfully run a thriving business, immersing herself in supporting relationships and being fiercely present with her family. She will inspire you, encourage you and support you so that you can carve a path for your own success (whatever that may look like!) and crush your goals. Allow Sarah to bring a positive change into your life and help guide you to say yes to opportunities.

3

Following God's plan with great purpose

In this message, Sarah will challenge you to get so busy loving God, loving others, and chasing that dream inside of you. In doing so, you won't have time for worry, have regret, or allow fear to sneak into your schedule the only option will be to act. She will remind you to follow God's plans with great purpose, say yes even when you can't foresee the outcome and arrive there with an open mind and willing heart. Sarah emphasizes that there is a blessing waiting for each of us and that by doing less with more focus you can create a greater wave.

BROADWAY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Sarah encouraged, inspired and challenged the women of the Embrace Conference with her engaging teaching and warm presence. We were able to find ourselves in the stories she shared about her own journey and walked away with guidance we could immediately put into practice. Nearly a year later, I still remember the importance of making small daily deposits, surrounding yourself with "light" people, and listening to the wisest (not the loudest) voice in the room. I can't recommend her highly enough to other groups. She has deep wisdom to share and her passion is contagious!
